How do we better the entertainment and music industry? Join us in pushing the narrative and doing it “For The Culture”. For The Culture is a mixer for Charlotte’s youth. On Saturday March 11th, 2023, at 4:00 PM EST, Legacy Music Co. will be giving Charlotte, NC a networking and showcase event to give the youth an experience of a lifetime. It’s not always about being on stage or the center of attention, and Legacy is here to push the narrative on how much of a necessity it is to have strong people behind the scenes.

Reaching out to you about For The Culture only makes sense. You even said so yourself, “My perfect day would include skiing, live music and Tar Heel football. And the Tar Heels would win.” The live music part of that will be in full effect at Legacy Music Co. in East Ridge Mall. Your article on the biggest concerts coming in November was a tasteful read. Your coverage is top quality.

I would love to have a chance to interview you further.

Sincerely,

Quentin Nash
